Jupiters Hotel & Casino Supports City's Young Entrepreneurs

Jupiters Hotel & Casino is a proud major sponsor of the 2015 Gold Coast Young Entrepreneur of the Year Awards, which recognises the city's top young business leaders aged 40 and under.

Award recipients will be honoured at the prestigious awards ceremony which will be held in the property's ballroom on Friday October 30.

Managing Director Jupiters Hotel & Casino Geoff Hogg said supporting Gold Coast's young entrepreneurs is paramount to fostering and shaping the City's future.

"We're in the midst of an exciting time of development and growth for the Gold Coast, and entrepreneurs form an essential pillar to continuing our success as a city," he said.

"We are proud of the place we live in and of the talented and inspiring people around us, so every year we support these awards that celebrate the innovators and ambitious business leaders who highlight how bright the Gold Coast's future truly is."

Managing Director of Business News Australia Camilla Jansen said the awards aim to unearth the talent we have here on the Gold Coast and to give young professionals recognition and the opportunity to meet and exchange ideas and experiences," said Jansen.

"The awards are much more about your potential and point of difference and a great chance to build a network of likeminded people working hard to build their empires," she said.

"We are absolutely thrilled to be once again partnering with Jupiters. As the biggest private employer on the Gold Coast Jupiters is at the forefront of innovation, with the team witnessing and nurturing young talent in the workplace every day."

Award categories include retail and services; tourism, hospitality and events; digital and technology; health and fitness; property and construction; professional services; manufacturing, wholesale and distribution and social entrepreneur.

Business News Australia has also joined forces with YP Gold Coast to offer a Young Professional award – this award recognises employees making great strides in their career
