Month of entertainment to celebrate 30 year milestone

It's one of the City's most iconic venues and this month, Jupiters Hotel & Casino will present an outstanding line-up of live entertainment in celebration of three fun-filled decades on the Gold Coast.

Throughout November Jupiters Theatre will showcase some of the biggest names in the international recording industry, including legends like the Beach Boys, Engelbert Humperdinck and Burt Bacharach.

In what's sure to be a month to remember, Jupiters will also present another instalment of the hugely successful comedy series 'Laugh Your Pants Off'. The celebrations will continue with soulful songster Stan Walker taking to the stage, and even Elvis will be in the building in November for Shake Rattle & Roll.

Managing Director Queensland Geoff Hogg said the huge month ahead offered people the perfect chance to join in the celebrations.

"Since opening our doors in November 1985, Jupiters has proudly built a reputation as the Gold Coast's premier entertainment venue. We've welcomed more than 100 million people through our doors and an astonishing 5.6 million have enjoyed our stage spectaculars," he said.
